

Labour and Human Rights Policy

Epirus Metalworks recognises the right of all employees and stakeholders to work with dignity and believe that everyone in the Company is responsible for having due regard for human rights.

Within Viohalco, commitment on ethical principles is vitally important. Epirus Metalworks supports the fundamental principles, as articulated in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the OECD Guidelines and the ILO Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work. Epirus Metalworks supports the protection of international human rights across the business value chain, and will not be complicit in human rights abuses. The Company's policies and procedures adhere to all applicable national laws concerning freedom of association and collective bargaining, non-discrimination, forced labour and underage workers in the workplace.

Epirus Metalworks' commitment relies on morals concerning the fundamental human rights set out in the International Labour Organisation's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Non-discrimination

Epirus Metalworks respects diversity and avoids any form of unfair or unlawful discrimination in employment or occupation, in conjunction with promoting a culture where people recognise the value a diverse workforce brings. Epirus Metalworks hires, assesses, remunerates and administers in a manner that does not discriminate in respect to gender, race or ethnicity, nationality, religion or other beliefs, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, political opinion, union affiliation, social or educational background. Workplace diversity at all levels is encouraged.

Equality and equal opportunities

Epirus Metalworks does not tolerate any discrimination based on gender, race or ethnicity, nationality, religion, age, social or educational background, disability, belief, sexual orientation, or political and trade union engagement. These principles apply to the recruitment of new employees, to employees with an employment contract, and to the professional promotion of employees. The only decisive factors of employment are performance, experience, personality, efficiency, skills, qualifications, and conduct.

Freedom of association

Epirus Metalworks upholds freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining. Epirus Metalworks shall retain an open and constructive dialogue with its employees and shall respect employees' rights to freely associate, organize, and bargain collectively in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, in support of their mutual interests.
